Camp Meeting

The 2012 Camp meeting was preceded by a 2-day Ministers and Workers conference titled: THE HOME OF THE SERVANT OF GOD. It took place at the Big White Tent, Faith City campground, Igbesa, Ogun State, Nigeria on Thursday and Friday, August 2 and 3, 2012 with a peak attendance of 6, 241. The conference exposed to the participants how our effectiveness in the service of the Lord can be helped or hindered by our spouse and children and what we can do to avert the negative influences that make a home not to function according to how God wants it to. It is up to us to run our family life on the Word of God.

The theme of the Camp Meeting itself was: THE GOODNESS AND GLORY OF GODLINESS. The meetings started on August 5 and ended August 26, 2012. The peak attendance was 27, 248 and most of the countries in West and Central Africa were well represented.

The Superintendent General of

The Apostolic Faith of Portland Oregon worldwide, Rev. Darrel D. Lee and his son, Randy were also privileged to attend for the WECA camp meeting for the first time ever. In one of his addresses, he charged the Sunday school teachers at a conference that they should remember the faith of their godly mothers and fathers (1 Timothy 4:7&8), endure hardness (1 Timothy 1:13-15) and stay focused until the rapture.

Activities that took place during the 2012 camp meeting included: Bible Teachings, Devotional, Youth and Evangelistic and Ordinance Services, Charity Day, Music Test, Teachers' conferences, Foreign Mission Meetings and Film Shows. There was also a First aid/Midwives seminar, Charity Day, Camp Concert and Youth Concert.

Dedication of Lagos Churches

Agege

The magnificent Agege Church dedication service was led by the Superintendent General, Rev. Darrel D. Lee on Tuesday, 28 August, 2012.

The foundation of this church was laid by Late Rev. J. O. Soyinka in July 1997, when Late Brother Henry Fasonu was the Pastor. God used

Brother Fasonu to start the construction of the new church. Some of the people who were part of this beginning have gone to their reward. After his call to glory, Brother Peter Awomoyi took over as the Pastor of the church and he continued the work. During this period, the church was roofed, aluminum windows and doors were put in place; the church auditorium, the front wall and the entrance were tiled. Brother J. O. Akande, the present pastor of the church also worked tirelessly. With much prayers and dedication, the building reached its present stage of completion.

May God reward all the hands used for the completion of this work with eternal life.

Abesan

The dedication service was anchored by the Superintendent General, Rev. Darrel D. Lee.

The year 2012 marks the 20th anniversary of the establishment of Apostolic Faith church, Abesan and incidentally, coincides with the dedication of the church building, to the glory of God.

Initially, there were only three church locations in Lagos -

Anthony (headquarters), Agege and Oto-Awori. With the rapid membership growth, the then Africa Overseer, Late Rev. Josiah O. Soyinka, saw the need for decentralization, so that people could worship in the church location nearest to their residences. As a result, some areas were identified for the establishment of new church locations, of which Abesan was one.

The foundation laying of the main church building took place on May 29, 2000. The service was conducted by the immediate pas Africa Overseer, Late Rev. Paul O. Akazue. During the tenure of the third Pastor, Brother Olusegun Dahunsi, the church building was plastered and floored, scarcity of funds notwithstanding.

On January 29, 2007, the incumbent pastor, Brother James Olusoga Tifase was appointed. All the members agreed that the finishing of the structure must be outstanding to show the beauty of God and this can be seen today from what God has done.
