Portland, Oregon

The attendance of Nigerian brethren at 2012 Portland Camp meeting was without precedent. About 20 Nigerian attended, among who were: the Regional Overseer, Port Harcourt Region, Rev. Edet Bassey, Director, Welfare and Administration, Weca, Rev. James Olaleye and his wife, Martel, and Brother Wole Ajayi, Assistant Director, Treasury, and his wife, Yemisi.

They were mightily blessed. The District Superintendent for WECA, Rev Bayo Adeniran was unable to attend this year because of the 2012 camp meeting preparation in Nigeria and the proposed dedications of three churches in Nigeria immediately after the camp meeting.

Camp Meeting Press Conference

A press conference was held at the West and Central Africa (WECA) District Headquarters, Anthony Village, Lagos on Tuesday, 24th of July, 2012 to announce the 2012 Annual Camp Meeting taking place at Faith City, Igbesa, Nigeria from August 5 to 26.

The WECA District Superintendent, Rev Bayo Adeniran stated before newsmen from various Newspaper houses in Nigeria that the annual Camp Meeting is a critical part of our yearly spiritual calendar, a period of spiritual renewal, deeper consecration and commitment to the service of God. It also marks the commencement of a new spiritual year.

As an organisation committed to the spread of the Gospel and the teaching of the undiluted word of God as enunciated in the Bible, our sermons and teachings during the period, expectedly, shall focus on the fundamentals, tenets and principles of the Gospel, the pillars upon which rest the Faith and Doctrines of the Apostolic Faith Church, globally. Captioned; “The Goodness and Glory of Godliness”, the 2012 edition of the three week long Convention would among others witness an outpouring of divine blessings and manifestation of God’s powers.

Pastors & Ministers’ Meeting

Pastors and Senior Ministers in Lagos North and South Districts held a meeting at the Anthony Headquarters on Tuesday, July 17, 2012.

The meeting focused on “SHARING THE BURDEN BETWEEN OURSELVES AND WITH OTHERS”. The District Superintendent quoted from Matthew 7:11, 17, 20. Here Jesus sharing the burden with the disciples. They shared with the Lord and did their job with joy.

They saw the goodness of the Lord. If we do not share our burden with one another, one may be doing what he or she is not supposed to do. We should not do jobs that are not ours.

He also quoted Nehemiah 2:12-16 - Nehemiah shared the burden and took it to God. Now, just before the Camp Meeting, is the time to be spiritually burdened.

The burdens ate Nehemiah up and he appeared before the king and the king saw it. When a burden is shared it becomes miracles. When we share our burden and carry it together and God takes over, our work will be lighter. For us to have the benefit and the bounties of the camp we must first have the burden.
