The 2012 Ghana Camp meeting took place on Akplaku Hill, Accra between August 26 and September 9, 2012. The camp meeting had as its theme: The Goodness and Glory of Godli-

Port-Novo

The Apostolic Faith, Port Novo, Benin Republic turned twenty five this year. To mark this silver jubilee, WECA Headquarters considered it necessary to send a team there to felicitate and encourage them. The Mission team was led by Sister Rachael Fakorede.. Other members of the team were Brothers Peter Atoe and Femi Abiodun Four services were held on 23 September in a beautiful almost completed church building at The Apostolic Faith Church, Port Novo.

Sister Fakorede admonished Pastors, Ministers and the general workers at the Prayer Room on the need to keep the standard of the church ness.

This year Camp meeting was a classic example of co-operative effort within WECA: There were 25 ministers, choristers, workers and other delegates from Nigeria; 16 from the Republic of Benin; 5 from Niger Republic, and 66 from Cote D'Ivoire. Ministers and all workers worked together in one accord and God prospered the concerted effort.

The combination of seekers willing to pray to get results, dedicated altar workers committed to helping until seekers pray through and the presence of the Holy Spirit to inspire and keep seekers on their knees generated a deluge of blessings.

high. After the Opening song and prayers, the elementary department acted a play, mimicking the pioneering missionaries that started the work. They portrayed how they held street meetings and house-to-house evangelism. The Devotional service was led by Sister Fakorede and she preached on "Working towards Eternal Life". The sermon was followed by a long prayer session which was richly blessed. There were 6 people saved, 1 person baptised another one healed.

At 2:30pm, a meeting was held where past leaders and workers were decorated. There were eight men and two women. A drama was also staged which showed how Deborah, a girl that was dead for three days was raised from the dead. Deborah's mother later testified to confirm that the story is real. The miracle sparked off revival in Port Novo.

At 6:00pm, there was a musical concert that featured familiar tunes and orchestration such as "The Lord is My Shepherd, 'Everytime I Feel the Spirit" and "I Cannot Forget the Day". The program ended at 8:10pm. A short address was given by Brother Peter Atoe after which another session of prayer took place.

Attendance during different services are as follows: Sunday School 602, Devotional Service 688, Decoration Service 432, Musical Concert 804.

We can truly say of Port Novo, there was joy in the camp.

Abuja

The Apostolic Faith in Abuja began in a humble way at No 1 Kaolack Street Zone 1, Wuse, Abuja in the living room of Brother Soji Tumi Olamijulo of blessed memory in September 1987.

The New Church at Jabi, Abuja

The foundation of the first church building was laid by then Africa Overseer, Late Rev. J. O. Soyinka on Nov. 25, 1988. Subsequently, the Church was dedicated on March 18, 1990.

The foundation stone of the new auditorium with classical musical facilities was laid on September 20, 1996 by Late Rev. J. O. Soyinka and members of the then Board of Trustees.

Following the vacuum created by the demise of Rev. Soji Olamijulo, Rev. E. A. Adeniran was appointed to take over. He assumed office with the burning desire to complete the work his predecessor started. Within a short time, the auditorium was roofed. This sparked off a great revival in the district. Incidentally, the then Africa Overseer, Rev. Paul O. Akazue, who supported the Abuja project tremendously, was soon called to glory. Thus, the mantle fell on Rev. Adeniran as District Superintendent for West and Central Africa (WECA).

Rev. Aaron O. Olamijulo was appointed the Regional Overseer for Abuja Region in 2010. He worked day and night to see to the completion of the work, the result of which is the finished building.

The Superintendent General of The Apostolic Faith Mission worldwide, Rev. Dareel D. Lee was the leading Minister at the dedication service on 1 September 2012.

Our greatest investment is not in Buildings but in our people. While buildings will grow old, we secure the future of this glorious gospel in the hands of our priceless jewels.

We have a GOSPEL that lasts!

Monthly Prayer Retreat

The monthly prayer retreat for September was held at Anthony on 22 September 2012 between 6am and 9am. Attendees were admonished to guard jealously the godliness in their hearts. Satan wants to steal the most precious thing in the heart – purity. The best weapons to employ are the Blood of Jesus and the name of Jesus Christ which must be called from a pure heart to make it avail. These weapons would open all doors. Attendance included people who were not regular comers to the Church. After the prayers, some senior Ministers were privileged to dedicate a Church bus for the use of Ikorodu branch Church. Glory be to God.
