

FAITH CITY CAMP MEETING GUIDE FOR FOREIGN GUESTS

Welcome to Nigeria and Faith City, Ogun state - venue of the 2023 Apostolic Faith Mission camp meeting.

A. TRANSPORTATION FROM AIRPORT

- All foreign delegates are expected to register for the camp to enable PROTOCOL UNIT to capture their details and itinerary for reception at the airport. Details of registration process is given under section E below.
- Only delegates from other WECA and outside WECA countries other than Benin Republic would be offered transportation to and from the campground.
- All delegates are not to come for commercial purposes, neither should they come with too much luggage.
- Missions department is to give the list and identity of intending campers from Francophone countries that would benefit from the transportation arrangements. The size of allowable luggage would be stated.
- Foreign Delegates in Transit: Anthony Village facilities would be used as transit camp for delegates whose flight or vehicle would arrive Lagos after 12:00 noon and would not be able to join the church shuttle service to Faith city for that day. An achievable journey management plan is being put in place so that shuttles to the airport will be once per day.
- Transit car hire services by private operators will be arranged by WECA HQTRS transport unit during the camp. This is especially for delegates who will not be able to cope with the waiting time of our normal shuttle from the airport to Faith city.

B. ACCOMMODATION

- Basic accommodation will be provided for delegates from the USA, Europe, Asia and other countries outside WECA etc. in the dormitories.
- However, limited accommodation is available at Crawford University Guest House and other special Houses at a cost.
- These guest houses will be booked on a first-come-first-served basis.
- Crawford Guest House – cost per night

Single Room – N8,000.00

Double Bed - N10,000.00

- JRA Guest Houses – N8,000.00

- Book accommodation with Bro. Solomon Okon +2348028849877
admin.weca@apostolicfaithweca.org
- There is no provision for cooking/self-catering in the guest houses.

C. CAFETERIA AND CANTEEN SERVICES

- All delegates, including foreign guests, are advised to provide for their feeding and other needs during the camp. Complimentary cards will be issued to full-time ordained ministers specifically invited.
- The cost of meals is slightly higher in the cafeteria, where continental dishes are served, than in the canteen serving local specialties. Average cost of meal in the cafeteria is N2,500.00 and N1,000.00 per meal in the canteen.

D. OBLIGATIONS

- All campers and delegates are expected to dress modestly and attend all meetings, teachings and services in the tabernacle and other venues as specified.
- All sick people are to be referred to the FIRST AID centre located in front of ECOBANK for necessary guidance.
- Campers are advised to deposit their large amounts of cash and other valuables in the Treasury for safe keeping.
- Campers are expected to keep their environment clean and tidy at all times.

E. REGISTRATION PROCEDURE FOR FOREIGN GUESTS

1. Visit the cloud portal <https://afmweca.com>. This URL is open to all intending camp attendees.
2. Click the “REGISTER FOR EVENT” link on the landing page. The camp theme and dates should be displayed next.
3. Enter your surname and/or first name to search our database.
 - a. If we have your details from a previous registration, they will be displayed. Select View/Edit option to reconfirm or update your details. Click “SAVE” and then “BACK TO EVENT REGISTRATION” to continue to register.
 - b. If your record is not displayed, click “REGISTER AFRESH” to do a fresh registration. Follow the intuitive prompts to fill in all needed info currently. Select your country of residence from the dropdown. For District, choose “NON-WECA COUNTRIES” from the list and for branch select your country. If you are from a WECA country, select it directly from the list, and then your branch (if your branch is not displayed, select the nearest branch or your zone). Select a sub-branch, if applicable. Finally, click “SAVE” and follow prompts to register for the event.

For “MEMBER TYPE” select Member if you are an AF member or worker and plan to physically attend the camp. If you would only be joining virtually, please select Web Audience.

4. After completing/confirming your registration, go back to step 3, to do a confirmatory search. Your record should appear. Please make a note of your unique ID displayed.
5. Send an email to admin.weca@apostolicfaithweca.org with your name and unique ID. If you are a worker and plan to attend the worker’s conference, please indicate so in your email. If you requested for accommodation during registration, please indicate your proposed arrival/stay dates in Nigeria.
6. The WECA Admin team will engage you further on your travel plans and workers conference badge, if applicable.

F. SECURITY AWARENESS

- Campers should be security conscious and refer all security issues to the security unit through - Bro. Tanimowo Agrampe – 08166910245.
- For enquiries please always contact the following numbers – 08037810234, 08080448244, CUG – 07015127946

G. VISITORS’ TOUR

- Visitors guided tour of some important places around Lagos State is temporarily suspended due to the security situation in the country.

F. OTHERS

- Library facilities are available at the university administration block. Please contact the information unit for details.
- Campers should obey all camping and housekeeping rules displayed all over the camp sites.
- All campers are advised to avoid a display of wealth and flamboyance so as not to be targets of attack or robbery.